

Argentina's energy system, much like a overworked tango dancer, keeps stumbling when the heat is on. But here's the twist: the country is now charging toward energy storage solutions like a gaucho ...

At ATCC, Bridging Argentina & Texas 2025 goes beyond metaphor: it's a bilateral exchange connecting the energy sectors of Argentina and Texas.

The first large-scale battery energy storage tender in Argentina is catching the attention of the international community as an unequivocal step towards modernizing power infrastructure.

Energy Workforce President Tim Tarpley spoke about the global industry macro environment in the opening sector of the Argentina Texas Summit in Neuquén, Argentina during the AOG Expo 2025.

This initiative offers operators, service providers, and investors a valuable platform to explore one of Latin America's most dynamic energy markets. With a focus on renewables, oil & gas, and transition ...

Hosted in Houston, these events highlighted the strength of bilateral ties and Argentina's strategic energy potential, while offering powerful moments of connection across sectors. Explore the photo gallery below to ...

In 2021, the American Clean Power Association reported that Texas installed 7,300 MWs of new wind, solar, and energy storage versus just 2,700 MWs in California 2.

Under the agreements, e-STORAGE will deliver its SolBank 3.0 battery energy storage system and provide 10 years of long-term services, supporting system reliability, performance optimization, and ...

With over 500 attendees and representatives from more than 200 U.S. companies, the day showcased the strength and potential of the energy relationship between Argentina and Texas.

Under a 15-year contract, the state-owned company Enarsa aims to add 14 million cubic meters per day through the installation of new compressor plants, with the potential to increase capacity by an additional 6 ...

Web: <https://www.scmindustries.co.za>