

The Air Astana Group has recently introduced stricter regulations concerning the transport of lithium batteries and devices powered by these batteries. This change aims to enhance ...

In order to ensure safety, spare lithium batteries, accumulators, including power banks and their elements are allowed to be transported only in hand luggage or for freight transportation only. Spare ...

Air Astana Group urges all passengers flying with Air Astana and FlyArystan to review the latest lithium battery transport guidelines available on the airline's official websites before traveling.

In order to enhance flight safety, it has updated rules requiring that spare batteries, including power banks and vape devices, are permitted only in carry-on baggage. If carry-on ...

Tests shall be conducted indoors with fire propagation hazards and separation distances between initiating and target units representative of the installation. The results of such tests shall be ...

Air Astana Group introduced (13-Mar-2025) stricter rules on the transport of lithium batteries and battery powered devices to enhance flight safety. The new policy permits carriage of ...

If carry-on baggage needs to be checked in, passengers are required to remove all spare batteries in advance. In accordance with existing rules, the maximum allowable battery capacity is 100Wh.

Starting March 13, 2025, Air Astana Group will implement stricter rules regarding the transport of lithium batteries and battery-powered devices to improve flight safety.

Effective from 13 March 2025, the Air Astana Group is strengthening its regulations on the transport of lithium batteries and battery-powered devices in order to enhance flight safety.

Web: <https://www.scmindustries.co.za>