

In 1873 the company was founded as Atlas, in 1917 it became Atlas Diesel and in 1956 it changed name to Atlas Copco. Wallenberg, together with three partners, founded a company to make railroad ...

Founded in Stockholm, Sweden, in 1873, the company began by manufacturing equipment for the Swedish railway system. Its initial vision was to supply essential machinery for ...

What is the Atlas Copco Founding Story? Atlas Copco company was founded on February 21, 1873, by financier Edvard Fr&#228;nckel under the name AB Atlas. The name was inspired ...

In November 1890, the company was reconstructed and a new company, Nya Aktiebolaget Atlas, was founded with three new production lines: locomotives, commercial central heating systems and ...

What is Atlas Copco? Founded in 1873 by Eduard Fr&#228;nckel in Stockholm, Sweden, Atlas Copco has evolved from a small workshop specializing in industrial equipment to a global ...

Atlas Copco was founded in 1873 in Stockholm, Sweden, as AB Atlas by Eduard Fr&#228;nckel. The company initially focused on manufacturing railway equipment before transitioning to compressed air ...

AB Atlas, as it was previously named, was founded by Edvard Fr&#228;nckel, who was a Swedish industrialist, politician and senior official at the Swedish State Railways. The company was established along with Andre O. Wallenberg, Johan W. Arnberg, Carl G. Cervin and Fredrik Didro. In its inauguration phase, Atlas dealt with the manufacturing, purchasing and selling ...

AB Atlas was established in 1873 to supply equipment for the Swedish railways, with two factories located in Stockholm and S&#246;dert&#228;lje. Atlas was the brainchild of Eduard Fr&#228;nckel, the chief engineer ...

Since we were founded in 1873, the Atlas Copco Group has been managed by 13 Presidents and CEOs. In 1997, Giulio Mazzalupi was the first non-Swedish citizen to take on the role.

Many things have changed since the company Atlas was first founded in 1873, in Stockholm, Sweden, but the spirit of innovation remains. In the early days, we provided Swedish Rail with all types of ...

Web: <https://www.scmindustries.co.za>